

PRESENTING PARTNER: CLARISSA'S BATTLE

Children First Collective are proud to be presenting partners for the film, "Clarissa's Battle" during the Human Rights Watch Festival at MOPA on Feb. 2nd, 2023.

SYNOPSIS:

Single mother and organizer Clarissa Douthard is building a powerful coalition of parents. They're fighting for child care and early education funds, desperately needed by low and middle-income parents and children across the United States.

EVENT SUPPORT CFC WORKING GROUP MEMBERS CONTRIBUTED:

- Promotion and Outreach
- Child Care
- Panel Speakers

There were excellent thoughts and discussions, leaving everyone with a refreshed outlook for the future of the child care industry in San Diego. A great job to our PB&J Fellows and CFC Working Group members for helping to make this event a success.

sdchildrenfirst.org
info@childrenfirstsd.org

CLARISSA'S BATTLE Q&A PANEL

San Diego is tired. We are ready for families to be seen. We are ready for families to get the critical resources they need to thrive."

In this unparalleled moment, San Diego needs to make meaningful investments in child care and early education. With the backing of the City Council, Board of Supervisors, and Chairwoman Nora Vargas, we must emphasize how crucial child care is for our economic growth.

For San Diego County, contact Children First Collective San Diego to connect with child care ecosystem experts.